

Every Word I Believe

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1899

William James Kirkpatrick

♩ = 80

1. If you ask me why I'm hap - py As I jour - ney down life's road, Why it
2. We are not al - lowed to wan - der Thro' this world with - out a guide, For, to
3. He in - forms us for our com - fort That thro' life He'll be our friend, That if 4. He has told us of a ci - ty Where the streets are paved with gold, Where the is I do not car - ry On the way a heav - y load; 'Tis be - keep our feet from stray - ing, His own Word has been ap - plied; And we we will on - ly trust Him, He'll go with us to the end, That His faith - ful shall be ga - thered And their Sav - ior's face be - hold; He has

- cause my Sav - ior tells me That my bur - den He'll re - ceive. And I be - lieve it, ev - ery read here that the sen - tence Of a sin - ner He'll re - prieve, And I be - lieve it, ev - ery Spir - it will be with us While we do not slight nor grieve, And I be - lieve it, ev - ery prom - ised at its por - tals That our souls He will re - ceive, And I be - lieve it, ev - ery word I be - lieve.

word I be - lieve. I be - lieve it, ev - ery word I be - lieve, I re - ceive it, ev - ery word I re - ceive;
word I be - lieve.
word I be - lieve.

Je - sus tells me my wants He will re - lieve, And I be - lieve it, ev - ery word I be - lieve.

