

Far, Far Away

R. E. Littlewood, 1858

Anonymous

♩=115

1. Far, far a - way, there's a ma - ny - man - sioned dwell - ing, Where the Sav - ior waits to
 2. Far, far a - way, there's a ha - ven deep and qui - et, Where the noise - less waves lie
 3. On - ward I tra - vel, in glad - ness or in sor - row, A - - cross these track - less wel - come the dear souls for whom He died; All a - cross the dark - some sleep - ing on the mount - ain - shel - tered shore, Where the surg - es ne - ver wa - ters, with His love to cheer me through; And as ev - ery sun - set val - ley, I can hear their an - thems swell - ing, And a - mid the gold - en en - ter, where no storm - y tem - pests ri - ot, Where the sails are furled for - clos - es, I can fan - cy that the mor - row Wi - ll fire the heav'n - ly glo - ry I can see them by His side. In the home so far a - way.

 - ev - er and the ship goes out no more, From the hav - en far a - way.
 mount - ains, with the ha - ven full in view And no long - er far a - way.