

A Few More Marchings Weary

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1882

William Howard Doane

1. A few more march-ings wea-ry, then we'll ga-ther home! A few more
2. A few more nights of weep-ing, then we'll ga-ther home! A few more
3. A few more sweet links brok-en, then we'll ga-ther home! A few more storm clouds drea-ry, then we'll ga-ther home! A few more days the cross to bear, And watch-es keep-ing, then we'll ga-ther home! A few more vic-t'ries o-ver sin, A kind words spok-en, then we'll ga-ther home! A few more part-ings on the strand, And then with Christ a crown to wear; A few more march-ings wea-ry, then we'll ga-ther few more sheaves to ga-ther in, A few more march-ings wea-ry, then we'll ga-ther then a-way to Ca-naan's land: A few more march-ings wea-ry, then we'll ga-ther

Refrain

home!
home! O'er time's ra-pid ri-ver, soon we'll rest for-ev-er; No more march-ings wea-ry home!

when we ga-ther home!
