

The Fountain

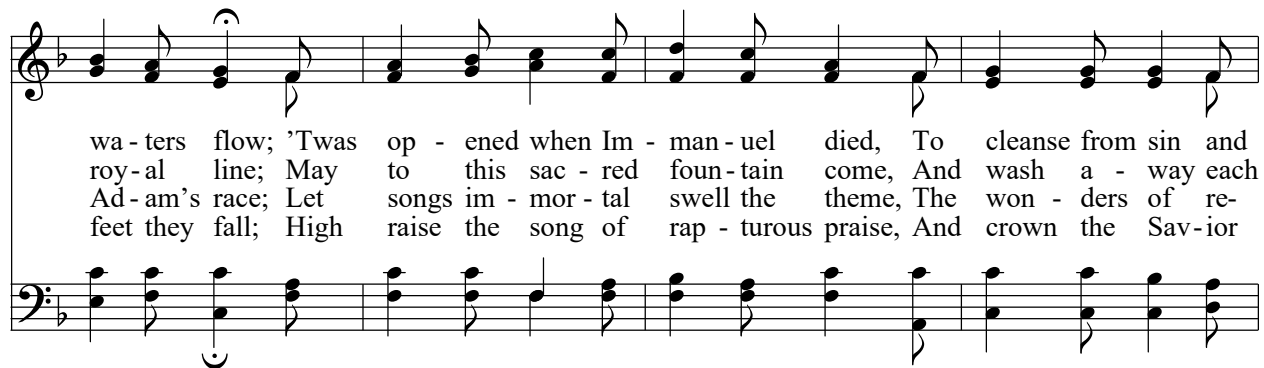

William Thomas Dale, 1878

O. A. Briggs

♩=97

1. There is a foun - tain op - ened wide, Whence streams of liv - ing
2. The dwell - ers of Je - ru - sa - lem, The heirs of Da - vid's
3. Here love, in one per - pe - tual stream, Des - cends to all of
4. Let Jew and Gen - tile blend their lays, As down at Je - sus' wa - ters flow; 'Twas op - ened when Im - man - uel died, To cleanse from sin and roy - al line; May to this sac - red foun - tain come, And wash a - way each Ad - am's race; Let songs im - mor - tal swell the theme, The won - ders of re - fect they fall; High raise the song of rap - turous praise, And crown the Sav - ior

Refrain

save from woe.
guil - ty stain. Oh, pre - cious foun - tain, Oh, crim - son foun - tain, 'Tis
- deem - ing grace.
Lord of all.

flow - ing free for you and me; O come, and drink and live.