

The Fountain of Life

William A. Burch, 1902

Franklin David Barnes

J=97

1. Je - sus is the on - ly foun - tain Of the life that can - not
2. As a fa - ther child - ren pi - ties, So does God in whom we
3. "Swift - er than a wea - ver's shut - tle," Pass thy days in ra - pid
4. Soon thy days will all be num - bered, Haste to seek the life be -
5. See the va - por, quick - ly pass - ing, Or the dew, at ear - ly end; You must per - ish! cease for - ev - er! If you make not Him your trust; For He knows our frame's frail ten - ure, And re - mem-bers we are flight; Hast thou faced the sol - emn quest-ion, "Have I hope be - yond death's yond! End - less as th'e-ter - nal ag - es, To God's mes - sage now re - morn! These the sym - bols of life's mea - sure, Thou was on - ly mor - tal friend.

Refrain

dust.
night?" Of e - ter - nal life Christ is the giv - er, Sound out these tid - ings To
- spond!
born.

earth's far-thest shore; "Length of days for ev - er and ev - er, E - qual to the an - gels," to die no more.

