

From North and South and East and West

George Thomas Coster, 1864

Arthur Seymour Sullivan, 1874

♩=170

1. From north and south and east and west, When shall the peo - ples, long un-
2. When shall the climes of age - less snow Be with the Gos - pel light a-
3. When on each south - ern balm-y coast, Shall ran - somed men, in count-less
4. O when in all the Or - ient lands, From ci - ties white, and flam - ing
5. O when shall heath - en dark-ness roll A - way in light, from pole to
6. Bring, Lord, the long pre - dict - ed hour, The ag - es' di - a - dem and

- blest, All find their ev - er - last - ing rest, O Christ, in Thee?
- glow, And all men their Re - deem-er know, O Christ, in Thee?
host, Rise, heart and voice, to make sweet boast, O Christ, in Thee?
sands, Shall men lift ded - i - cat - ed hands, O Christ, in Thee?
pole, And end - less day by ev - ery soul Be found in Thee?
flower, When all shall find their re - fuge, tower, And home in Thee!