

Give Me Thine Heart!

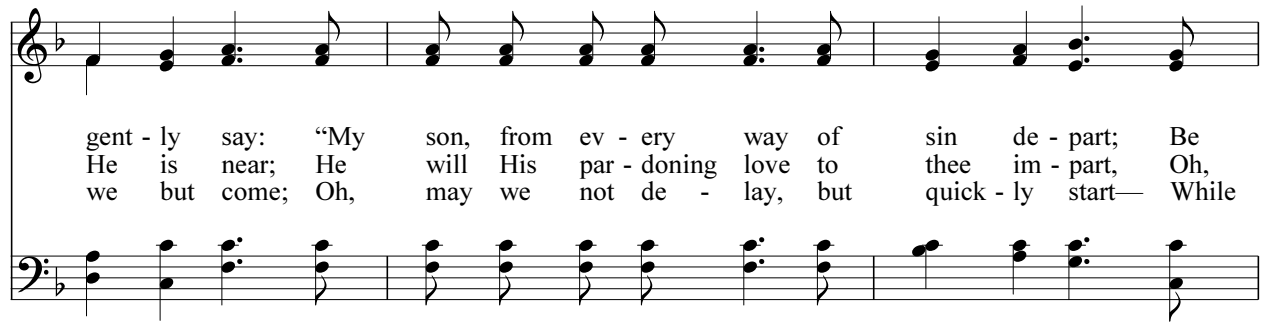

Eden Reeder Latta, 1887

Alonzo Judson Abbey

♩=97

1. Wher - ev - er we may go, by night or day, A lov - ing voice with - in doth
2. Slight not that voice so kind, but glad - ly hear, And choose the Lord to - day, while
3. We may have chos - en long from Him to roam, Yet He will wel - come us, if gent - ly say: "My son, from ev - ery way of sin de - part; Be

He is near; He will His par - doning love to thee im - part, Oh, we but come; Oh, may we not de - lay, but quick - ly start— While

Refrain

Sa - tan's slave no more, give Me thy heart!"
hear Him call - ing still, "Give Me thy heart!" "Give Me thy heart, give me thy heart; O Je - sus say - eth still, "Give Me thy heart!"

wea - ry, wan - dering child, give Me thy heart."