

Glorious Resurrection

Marian Froelich, 1888

Gideon Froelich

♩=95

1. When the win - ter snow de - scend - ed, Child - ren's thoughts with rap - ture
2. But when spring comes soft - ly breath - ing, Melts the ice, and flow - ers
3. So while chimes their songs are peal - ing, Sing we with de - vo - tion's tend - ed T'ward the birth-day of the Lord; And through - out the Christ-mas fes - wreath - ing, Gar - lands fair each bank and strand. Then we sing, "The Lord is ris - feel - ing, "Yea, the Lord is ris'n in - deed!" We with Him shall rise, death scorn -

♩=125 Refrain

- tal, Win - ter pure and snow of ves - tal, Plea - sures rich did oft af - ford. Hal - le - lu -
- en, He has burst the rock - y pris - on!" East - er car - ols fill the land.
- ing, To an end - less East - er morn - ing! Glor - ious re - sur - rect - ion creed.

- jah! Hal - le - lu - jah! Christ is ris - en to set us free.
Christ is ris - en, Christ is ris - en, Hal - le - lu - jah! ris'n to set us free.