

Glorious Resurrection

Marian Froelich, 1888

Gideon Froelich

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. When the win - ter snow de - scend - ed, Child - ren's thoughts with rap - ture
 2. But when spring comes soft - ly breath - ing, Melts the ice, and flow - ers
 3. So while chimes their songs are peal - ing, Sing we with de - vo - tion's tend - ed T'ward the birth-day of the Lord; And through - out the Christ-mas fes - tal, Win-ter wreath-ing, Gar - lands fair each bank and strand. Then we sing, "The Lord is ris - en, He has feel - ing, "Yea, the Lord is ris'n in - deed!" We with Him shall rise, death scorn-ing, To an

$\text{♩} = 125$ Refrain pure and snow of ves - tal, Plea-sures rich did oft af - ford. Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal - le-burst the rock - y pris - on!" East-er car - ols fill the land. Christ is ris-en, end - less East - er morn-ing! Glor-ious re - sur-rect-ion creed.

- lu-jah! Christ is ris - en to set us free.
 Christ is ris-en, Hal - le - lu-jah! ris'n to set us free.