

Glorious Time Coming

Jonathan Dwight Vinton, 1869

George Crawford Hugg, 1876

♩=103

1. Oh, the glo - rious time is com - ing, When the right - eous hence will go, Where the
2. There the hap - py, hap - py spir - it Feels an ev - er - last - ing joy; Sing - ing
3. Yes, the glor - ious time is com - ing; Trum - pets soon will sound the day, When this

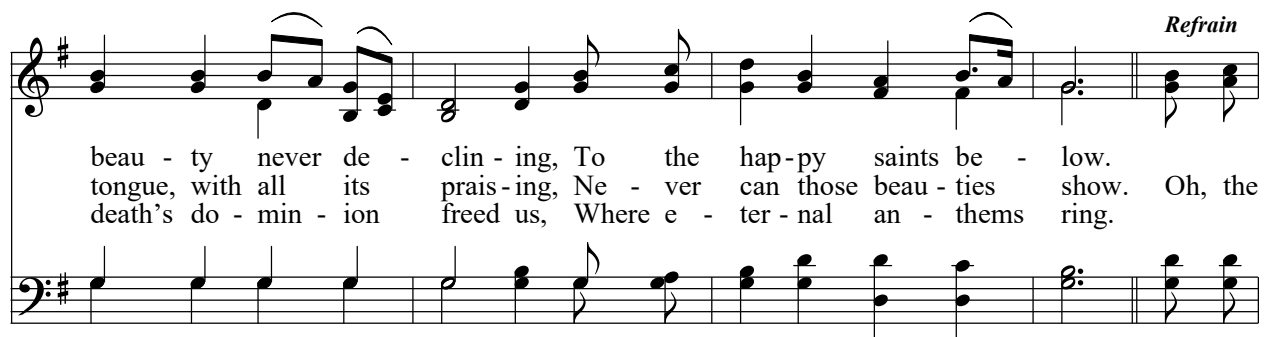

Sav - ior, gent - ly call - ing, Crowns im - mor - tal will be - stow. There are an - gels, hover - ing near it, Blest re - demp - tion's songs em - ploy. Oh, the world shall cease its hum - ming, And the right - eous flee a - way. Flee a - gar - ments white and shin - ing, Gold - en harps and joy - ous song; These, in world of beau - ty blaz - ing, Where the hap - py spir - its go! Mor - tal

- way? yes, up to Je - sus, Round His throne to stand and sing, Who from beau - ty never de - clin - ing, To the hap - py saints be - low. tongue, with all its prais - ing, Ne - ver can those beau - ties show. Oh, the death's do - min - ion freed us, Where e - ter - nal an - thems ring.

Refrain

glor-ious time is com-ing, Co-ming, com-ing; Oh, the glor-ious time is com-ing When the saints in light, With Christ shall reign; Oh yes! yes! yes! The glor-ious time is com-ing When the saints in light With Christ shall reign.