

God May Call for You

Lanta Wilson Smith, 1903

John Sylvester Fearis

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. When the hosts of sin are march - ing With their wea - pons gleam - ing bright, With their
2. When the fort - ress is in dan - ger, Watch the foe with cease - less care; He will
3. There are sol - diers who have ne - ver Seen the thick - est of the fight, But in ban - ners bold - ly wav - ing, All their forc - es in the fight; Then the ar - my of Je - ho - vah Keeps them sure - ly gain an en - trance, If one trai - tor soul is there; He will tempt, and bribe, and threat - en, Ev - ery hum - ble, cheer - ful ser - vice, They have kept the ar - mor bright; Ne - ver wea - ry, ev - er faith - ful, Glad to faith - ful - ly in view, And the Lord will want a lead - er— He may call for you. e - vil art pur - sue! Then the Lord wants faith - ful ser - vants— He may call for you. Are you toil the whole day thro', There is need of spe - cial work - ers— God may call for you.

Refrain

rea - dy? Are you rea - dy? Will you no - bly dare and do? Are you rea - dy? Are you for the fray, now, to - day? no - bly dare and do? for the fray?

rea - dy? God may call for you!
now, to - day? call, yes, He may call for you!