

God's Holy Church Shall Triumph

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1887

John Robson Sweney

♩=113

1. Press on, press on, ye work - ers, Be loy - al, brave, and true: Great things the Lord is
 2. The walls of leagued op - pres - sion To dust shall fall a - way; The sword of truth e -
 3. Be - hold her march - ing on - ward, In ma - jes - ty sub - lime, A - long the roll - ing do - ing, And great - er things will do; His ar - my, still in - creas - ing With each re - volving

 - ter - nal No power on earth can stay; Though all the hosts of dark - ness Were mar - shaled on the prair - ies That bound our west - ern clime; And soon from ev - ery ham - let On all our vast fron - year, Shall send a shout of rap - ture forth That all the world shall hear.

Refrain

 - field, The Church of God would stand un - moved, With Christ her strength and shield. Re - joice, re - tier Glad songs shall rise to J - e - sus, While skep - tics turn to hear.

- joice, ye work - ers all re - joice; O, clap your hands and sing, O, clap your hands and sing; God's ho - ly Church shall tri - umph yet, Tri - umph yet, tri - umph yet, And He shall reign our king, Shall reign our king.