

God's Boundless Love

Maltbie Davenport Babcock (1858-1901)

Musikalisches Handbuch (Hamburg: 1690)

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. God's bound - less love! As arch - ing sky A - bove us when we
 2. God's tirel - ess love! Be - side the cot Of her sick child the
 3. God's change - less love! The wan - d'ring one For - sakes, for - gets, dis -
 4. God's might - y love! On Cal - vary's height, Suff - 'ring to save us
 5. God's en - dless love! What will it be When earth - ly sha - dows wake and sleep, A - bove us when we smile and weep, A -

 - mo - ther sleeps. Our heaven - ly Fa - ther ev - er keeps Un -
 - hon - ors; yet, Re - pent - ing, go - ing home, is met With from our sin, To bring God's wide do - min - ion in, And flee a - way, For all e - ter - ni - ty's bright day Th'un -

- bove us when we live and die.
 - wear-y watch— and slum - bers not.
 no re - proach— “Wel - come, My son!”
 fill our lives with joy and light.
 - fold - ing of that love to see!