

Going Home Rejoicing

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1882

John Robson Sweney

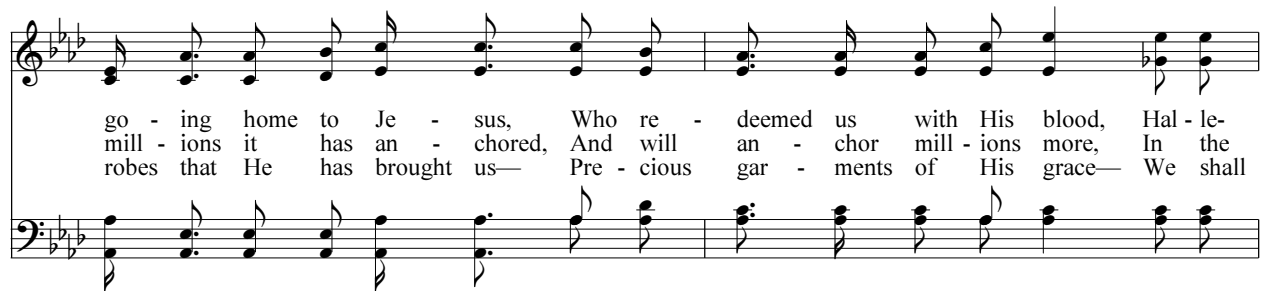

♩ = 88

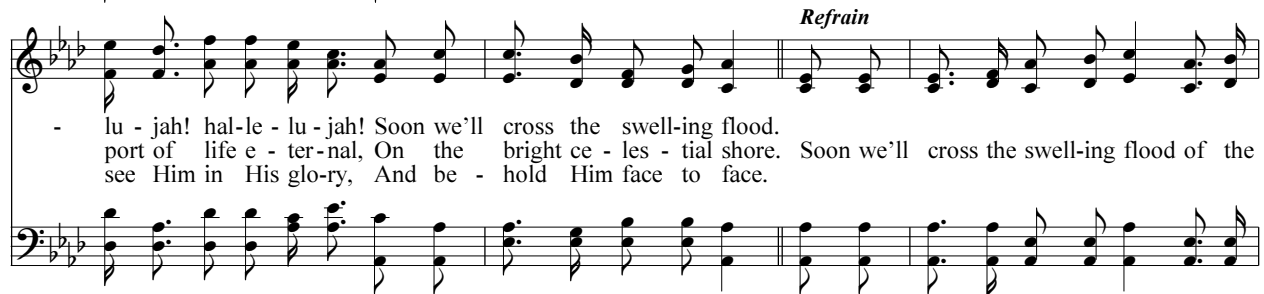

1. We are go - ing home re - joic - ing, Where our Fa - ther's dwell - ing stands, We are
2. We are go - ing in a ves - sel That we know is firm and strong; 'Tis the
3. We are go - ing home re - joic - ing, Praise the Lord we're go - ing home! Where forgo - ing home re - joic - ing, To a house not made with hands; We are good old ship of Zi - on, That has stood the storm so long; Count - less

- ev - er and for - ev - er, With the Sav - ior we shall roam; Clad in go - ing home to Je - sus, Who re - deemed us with His blood, Hal - le-mill - ions it has an - chored, And will an - chor mill - ions more, In the robes that He has brought us— Pre - cious gar - ments of His grace— We shall

Refrain
- lu - jah! hal - le - lu - jah! Soon we'll cross the swell - ing flood.
port of life e - ter - nal, On the bright ce - les - tial shore. Soon we'll cross the swell - ing flood of the see Him in His glo - ry, And be - hold Him face to face.

Jor - dan, And the hap - py, hap - py time is draw - ing nigh; In the gold - en fields of rest, o - ver draw - ing nigh,

Jor - dan, We shall ga - ther, we shall ga - ther by and by.