

Go While It Is Morning

Louise M. Anderson, 1893

Louise M. Anderson

$\text{♩} = 90$

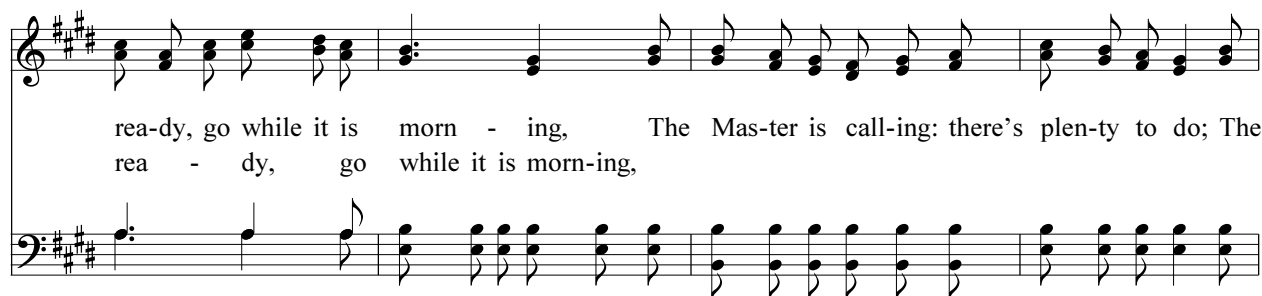

1. Oh, what have you done for Je-sus, And what are you do-ing to - day? In the
2. Oh, what have you done for Je-sus, And what are you do-ing to - day? Are you
3. Oh, what have you done for Je-sus, And what are you do-ing to - day? Are you

Refrain

morn-ing, at noon-tide, at ev - en Are you wast-ing your time a - way? Be reap - ing the rich, gold-en har - vest O - r bear - ing the sheaves a - way? Be safe in the field as a glean-er, O - h, what are you do - ing, pray?

rea-dy, go while it is morn - ing, The Mas-ter is call-ing: there's plen-ty to do; The rea - dy, go while it is morn-ing,

f bright gold-en fields are now wait - ing, But Oh, the lab'r-ers are few!
p bright gold - en fields are now wait-ing