

Go Ye, to Israel

Arranged by Sarah L. Squire, 1910

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. Ho! ye hunt - ers through - out Zi - on, Haste ye to the
 2. Ho! ye fish - ers through - out Zi - on, Go ye now and
 3. Go ye, through - out cru - el Rus - sia; And to In - dia's
 4. Go ye, through - out Ma - ce - don - ia, Heed the out - stretched
 5. He - brew child - ren have for - sak - en Cov - 'nants of their
 6. Yea, the fig tree now is bud - ding— Sum - mer draw - eth
 7. Days of grace are swift - ly glid - ing; Time shall be no
 8. Zi - on long has been down - trod - den By the Gen - tile prey; Go ye, to the Fa - ther's chos - en, Go while now ye fish; O - ver sea and land so brave - ly, Search— this is His strand, Through - out Chi - na and through A - sia, Pal - es - tine so arm, For the tribes are hast - ening on - ward; Go, there's naught to God— And His eye is ever o'er them; Hast - en— on - ward trod. nigh, And the mid - night cry is near - ing; To God's peo - ple more, When the wit - ness is com - plet - ed, To Him you will race; Fa - ther prom - ised to re - store it Thro' the means of may. In - iqui - ty has ru - ined These child - ren of God, And wish. In caves of the mount - ains, And lands o'er the sea, Mes - grand. Through Egypt and As - syr - ia, And Af - ric's burn - ing sand, harm. Haste ye to south - ern clim - ates, And north through the States; O The rem - nant He now call - eth Of this grand old race, To fly. Ere long the trump - et sound - eth, Ja - cob tried will be; The soar. Then haste ye to the bat - tle; His blest Word ful - fill— To grace. And Abram's seed will set - tle All the land now trod; O scat - tered with the hea - then Blind, they on - ward plod.

 - si - ah in - ter - cedes to Set His peo - ple free.
 O haste ye and bring them, Back to their own land.
 ha - ste, for their turn - ing, Je - sus now a - waits.
 trust His Word by faith; and Come to Him thro' grace.
 trib - u - la - tion o - ver, Je - sus they will see.
 Ju - dah take the mess-age—“Who-so - ev - er will.”
 bring them as a pre - sent To the mount of God.