

Hail! Glorious Army

M. A. Casey, 1899

Augustus Franklin Myers

$\text{♩} = 100$  Legato and slow

1. Christ has called to ser-vice Ev - ery youth to - day; Hark! the host ad - vanc-es, Join them in the
2. Time for prayer most ear-nest, You must have, or fail; Go with trust and cour-age, Sa - tan's host shall
3. Heed ye ev - ery or - der, Keep up - on the line, Grasp the sword of spir - it, Vic-to - ry is way. With a vi - sion glor-ious, Steps are quick and strong; From the hills of glo - ry quail. With the hope of tri - umph, On - ward press to - day; Gird thy sac - red pow - ers, thine. Bless - èd is the ser - vice, Sweet the dai - ly joy, Bright the bless - èd fu - ture,

Refrain

Christ com-mands the throng. Hail! glor-ious ar - my! Be strong and true,
There in - to the fray. Hail! the glor-ious, glor-ious ar-my! Be cour-age - ous, strong and true,
While in Christ's em - ploy.

Laud, praise your cap - tain, Who leads you through. Keep on re - cruit - ing, Laud and praise your, praise your cap-tain, Who will lead you, lead you thro'. Keep re-cruit-ing, keep re-cruit-ing,

Seek men ev - ery - where, Christ will sure-ly save, Give them crowns to wear.
Seek men, seek men ev-ery-where, Christ will sure-ly, Christ will save.