

Hail! Glorious King!

William Tillotson Pettengell, 1907

Arranged from Anton G. Rubinstein (1829–1894)

♩ = 95

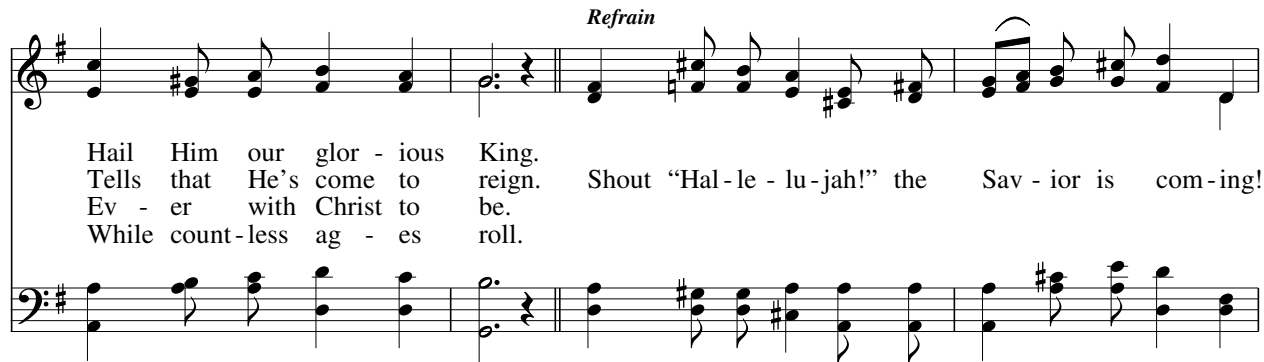

1. Je - sus is com - ing: the time draw - eth nigh; Rap - tur - ous songs to
2. Je - sus is com - ing: let glad - ness a - bound— Song of His prais - es—
3. Je - sus is com - ing: the skies soon will rend— An - gel - ic hosts with
4. Je - sus is com - ing: O hast - en to tell Sal - va - tion's tid - ings

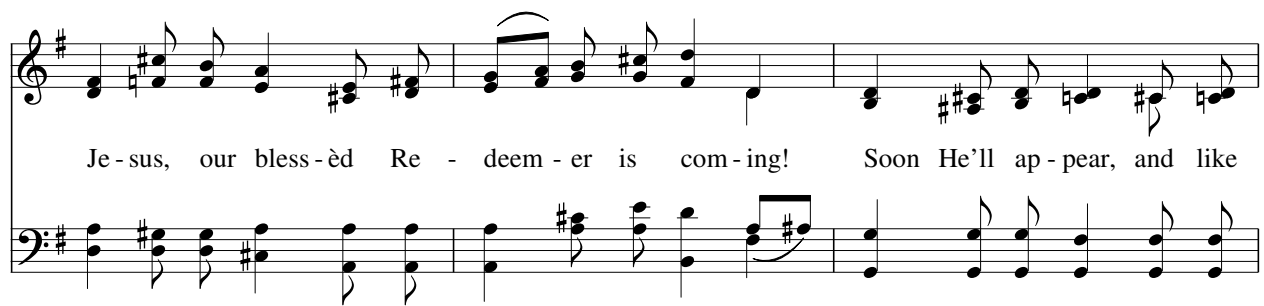

Him we shall sing; When He des - cends in the clouds of the sky—
Heav'n's sweet - est strain; Soon we shall hear as the trump - et's clear sound
Him we shall see; Dead saints shall rise and with us shall as - cend, to ev - ery soul; Mill - ions, with us, shall His grand prais - es swell,

Refrain

Hail Him our glor - ious King.
Tells that He's come to reign. Shout "Hal - le - lu - jah!" the Sav - ior is com - ing!
Ev - er with Christ to be.
While count - less ag - es roll.

Je - sus, our bless - èd Re - deem - er is com - ing! Soon He'll ap - pear, and like Him we shall be, To all e - ter - ni - ty.