

Happy Day

Franklin Edson Belden, 1888

Franklin Edson Belden

♩=102

1. Sweet pro - mise, "I will come a - gain; Go preach this Gos - pel
2. The right - eous dead shall then a - rise; With liv - ing saints as -
3. The ci - ty bright shall then ap - pear, The wick - ed then be
4. Then shall it blos - som as of old, In beau - ty glor - ious to all men"; "Come quick-ly, Lord," my soul doth say, "And bring that hap-py day."

- send the skies; And Sa - tan in this vale of tears Be bound a thou-sand years.
raised to hear The Jud - ge's aw - ful sen - tence dire, And earth shall melt with fire.
to be-hold! And sin and death be found no more On that im - mor-tal shore.

Refrain

Hap - py day, O hap - py day! Hap - py day, O hap - py Hap - py day, O hap - py day! hap - py day, Hap - py day, O hap - py day! Come quick-ly, Lord, no more de-lay; Come quick-ly, hap-py day.

day! hap-py day;