

He Lives! The Savior Lives!

Jessie MacDonald, 1912

Arranged from Verdi by Isaac Hickman Meredith

♩=105 Unison

1. Si - lent a gar - den rest - eth in sha - dow— Sha - dow the moon-light
2. Still - ness un - bro - ken! far in the dis - tance White gleam the road - ways,
3. Morn-ing ap - proach-eth, earth's fair-est morn - ing, Bright in the hea - vens, can-not dis - pel; Sol-diers in ar - mor, grim Ro - man sol - diers, Watch o'er a mid-night has sped; Lo! earth is shak - en! God sends an an - gel! Sol - diers in glo-ry ap - pears; Vi - sions of an - gels seen in the dawn - ing, Voic - es of

Soprano & Alto

sleep-er, guard-ing Him well. O - ver Ju - de - a late-ly He trod On ter - ror fall as if dead! Seal, thou art brok - en, He who was there Is an - gels calm-ing earth's fears. Why seek the liv - ing here 'mid the dead? For er - rands of love to lead men to God.

Refrain. Parts. All voices.

might-y to save! His power you de - clare! O blest East-er sto-ry, O Je - sus the Lord is ris'n as He said.

fore-taste of glo-ry, Tri - umph-ant o'er death, Je - sus rose from the dead; Re - deem-er and Sav-ior! Ex - alt-ed for - ev-er! Re - peat the blest words, "He is ris'n as He said!" He lives, the Sav-ior lives! He lives, the Sav-ior lives!