

He'll Come for Me

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1903

Charles Woodward James

♩ = 90

1. Soon I will hear my Lord say, "Come," To dwell with Him in yon - der
2. What tho' the way is all un - known, Yet I will not be all a -
3. T'ward that fair man - sion in the skies, I oft - en look with long - ing
4. I want to do for God my best, Be - fore I en - ter in - to home, And when life's day - light fades a - way, He'll come for me at close of day.

- lone; My Sav - ior will point out the way, And come for me at close of day.
eyes; But tho' God wills me now to stay, He'll come for me at close of day.
rest; Then when I leave this house of clay, He'll come for me at close of day.

Refrain

He'll come for me, He'll come for me, To spend with He'll come for me, He'll come for me,

Him e - ter - ni - ty; If here I love Him and o -
To spend with Him e - ter - ni - ty, e - ter - ni - ty If here I love,

- bey, He'll come for me at close of day.
love and o-bey He'll come for me, at close of day.