

He's the Prince of Peacemakers

Francis W. Ware, 1894

J. E. Glines

$\text{♩} = 70$

1. He hath spok - en, "Be still," the Re - buk - er of seas; The com - mand was for me, and my
2. He hath quick - ened my soul by a life from a - bove, It was done by the Spir - it, its
3. He's a won - der - ful Je - sus, this Sav - ior of mine, He's the great Son of God, a Re - 4. I will love Him and serve Him, from now till I die, For His love fills my heart, and His heart is at ease; He hath hushed in - to si - lence the waves and the winds, By ap -

- es - sence is love; He hath par - doned and washed me as white as the snow, And my
- deem - er di - vine. He's my strength, and my wis - dom, my life and my Lord, And en - beau - ty my eye. He's the fair - est and dear - est of all to my soul, And our ply - ing His blood, and re - mov - ing my sins.

Refrain

heart with His love does this mo - ment o'er - flow.
- throned in my heart to be loved and a - dored. He's the Prince of peace - mak - ers, all lives shall be one, while e - ter - ni - ties roll.

glo - ry to God, To re - deem me, and cleanse me, He shed his own blood; My a - dopt - ion is sealed, I'm a child of the King, And for ev - er and ev - er of Je - sus I'll sing.