

How Blest and How Joyous

Marshall Clement Kurfees, 1887

Alexander C. Hopkins

♩ = 112

1. How blest and how joy-ous will be the glad day, When heart beats to heart in the
2. The prayer of our Sav-ior im - pels us move on; Its words are still sound-ing the
3. Be faith - ful and true till the war-fare is o'er, Till fac - tions are foiled and the work of the Lord; When Chris-tians u - nit - ed shall swell the grand lay, Di - vi - sions all call of our king; And Paul, in de - vo - tion, doth e - cho the song, "I beg you, my vic - t'ry is won; And mil - lions of voic-es shall blend on the shore, To wel-come us

Refrain
end - ed, tri - um - phant His word! breth-ren, to speak the same thing." O shout the glad word, O has-ten the day, When en - ter our Fa - ther's glad home.

all of God's peo-ple are one; O shout the glad word, O has-ten the day, When all of God's peo-ple are one;