

I Come to Thee

Anna D. Bradley, 1890

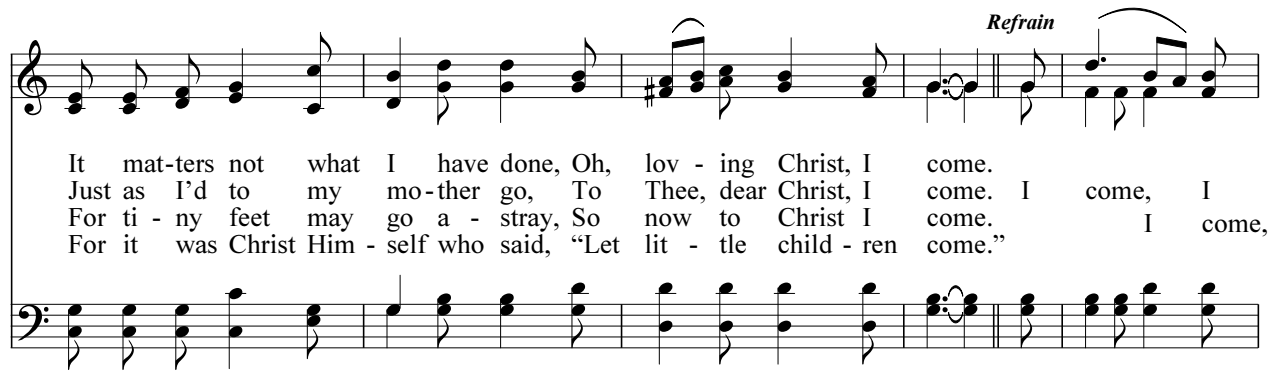

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

$\text{♩} = 100$

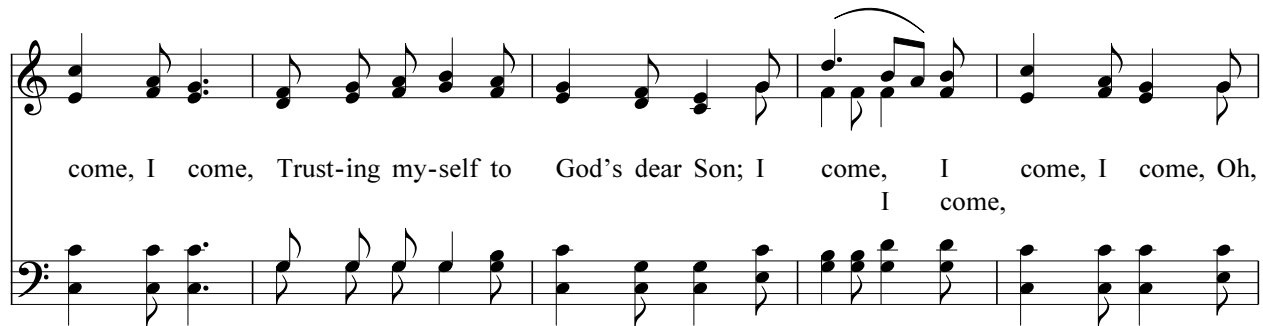

1. Just as I am, a lit - tle one, I trust my - self to God's dear Son;
2. Just as I am, be - fore I know The paths that lead to sin and woe,
3. Just as I am, no need to say I'll wait for yet an - o - ther day,
4. Just as I am, I'm not a - fraid: The way so ea - sy has been made;

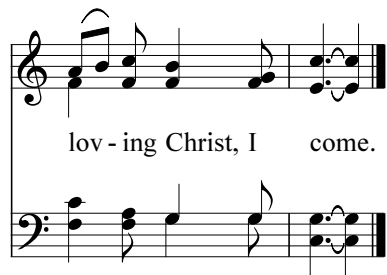

Refrain

It mat-ters not what I have done, Oh, lov - ing Christ, I come.
Just as I'd to my mo-ther go, To Thee, dear Christ, I come. I come, I
For ti - ny feet may go a - stray, So now to Christ I come. I come,
For it was Christ Him - self who said, "Let lit - tle child - ren come."

come, I come, Trust-ing my-self to God's dear Son; I come, I come, I come, Oh,
I come,

lov - ing Christ, I come.
