

I Have Christ

Mary Jane Deck Walker (1816–1878)

Letha H. Sims

♩=85

1. In the heart of Lon - don ci - ty, 'Mid the dwell - ings of the
 2. By a sick and dy - ing wo - man, Stretched up - on a gar - ret
 3. He who heard them ran to fetch her Some - thing from the world's great
 4. But her words will live for ev - er; I re - peat them o'er and
 5. Oh! my dear, my fel - low - sin - ners, Young and old, and rich and
 6. Look a - way from earth's at - trac - tions; All earth's joys will soon be poor, These bright gold - en words were ut - tered, "I have Christ— what want I more?" "I have floor; Hav - ing not one earth - ly com - fort, "I have Christ— what want I more?" "I have store; It was need - less— died she say - ing, "I have Christ— what want I more?" "I have o'er; God de - lights to hear me say - ing, "I have Christ— what want I more?" "I have poor, Can you say, with deep thanks - giv - ing, "I have Christ— what want I more?" "I have o'er: Rest not till your heart ex - claim-eth, "I have Christ— what want I more?" "I have

Refrain

Christ— what want I more?"
 Christ— what want I more?"
 Christ— what want I more?" "I have Christ! what want I more?" "I have Christ— what want I more?" I have Christ! What want I more?
 Christ— what want I more?"

rit.

Christ! what want I more?" "I have Christ! what want I more?"
 I have Christ! What want I more? I have Christ!