$\text{♩} = 103$

1. I lost the world with its sin and shame, When I found Je - sus, O praise His name!
2. I lost my love for its gild-ed toys, I found the rich-es of end - less joys;
3. I lost a bur - den of guilt and sin, I found a rest, per - fect rest with-in,
4. I lost the fet - ters that held me fast, I found a free-dom from sin at last;

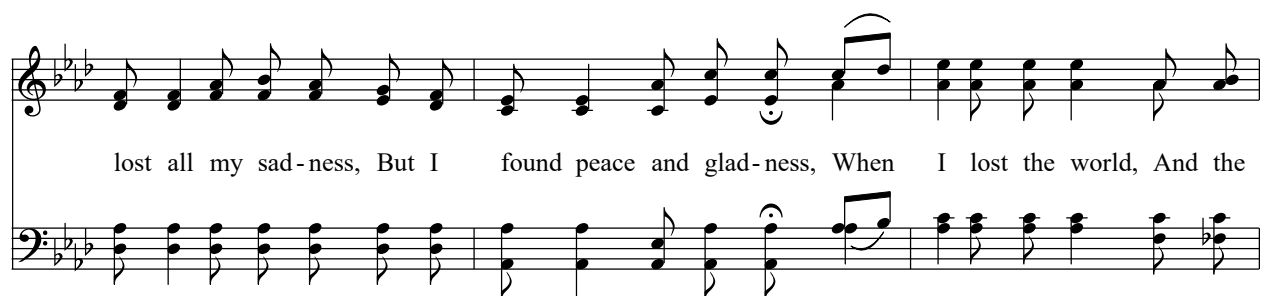

I lost my sor - row, what bless-èd loss! When I found mer - cy at Cal - v'ry's cross.
I lost a heart just as hard as stone, I found a bless-ing be - fore un - known.
I lost my blind - ness, and now I see, Light dawned up - on me at Cal - va - ry.
I lost the world, and the world lost me, "Thanks be to Je - sus" my song shall be.

Refrain

I lost the world, and the world lost me, When I found par-don at Cal - va - ry; I lost all my sad-ness, But I found peace and glad-ness, When I lost the world, And the world lost me.
