

I'm Going Home at Last

John Oatman, Jr., 1898

Adam Geibel

♩=90

1. When I see life's gold - en sun - set light - ing up the ro - sy west, When the
2. Tho' the road at times was wea - ry, o - ver which my feet have trod, Tho' thro'
3. When I pass down thro' the val - ley and the sha - dow of the dead, To my sha - dows back - ward o'er my way are cast; I shall look up - on that mo - ment as the ma - ny tri - bu - la - tions I have passed; Yet I soon will reach my man - sion in the bless - ed Sav - ior's hand I will hold fast; He has prom - ised to go with me, so my

Refrain
one su - preme - ly blest, I'm go - ing home at last.
ci - ty of our God, I'm go - ing home at last. I'm go - ing home at last, I'm go - ing home at soul will have no dread, I'm go - ing home at last.

last; When my work on earth is end - ed and my race be - low is run, I'm go - ing home at last.