1. There's a count - ry far be - yond the star - ry sky, There's a
 2. Here we have our days of sun - shine, but we know That the
 3. There the flow - ers bloom for - ev - er and the day Shall be
 4. Here we have our dis - ap - point - ments all the while, And our
 5. Then let sun - light fade, let twi - light bring its gloom, Not a ci - ty where there nev - er comes a night; If we're sun which shines up - on us now so bright; Will be one e - ter - nal day with - out a night; And our fond - est hopes but meet with bit - ter blight; Tho' by sha - dow can my bliss - ful soul af - fright; For I faith - ful we shall go there by and by, 'Tis the ci - ty where the Lamb is the light. changed to clouds and rain un - til we go To the ci - ty where the Lamb is the light. tears shall be for - ev - er wiped a - way, In that ci - ty where the Lamb is the light.

 night we weep, the morn - ing brings a smile, In that ci - ty where the Lamb is the light.
 know that up in Heav - en there is room, In that ci - ty where the Lamb is the light.

Refrain

In that ci - ty where the Lamb is the light, The ci - ty where there com - eth no night; I've a man - sion o - ver there, And when free from toil and care, I am go - ing where the Lamb is the light.
