

In the Highway of the King

John Prentice (Jack) Scholfield, 1918

John PrenticeScholfield

$\text{♩} = 110$

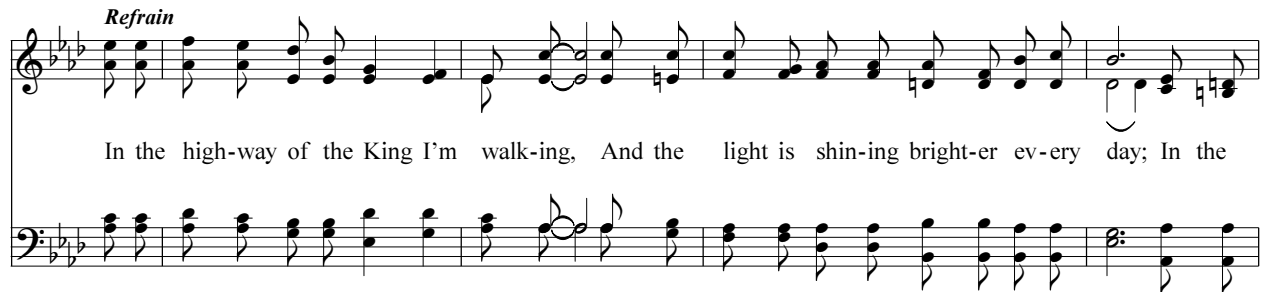

1. In the high-way of the King I'm walk-ing, From the val-ley of the world I've
2. In the high-way of the King I'm walk-ing, Heav-en's glo-ry shin-ing round my
3. In the high-way of the King I'm walk-ing, Ne-ver-more in sin-ful paths to turned; In the high-way of the King I'm walk-ing, I am hap-py in the love once spurned.

head; In the high-way of the King I'm walk-ing, Love and ser-vice crown the path I tread.
roam; In the high-way of the King I'm walk-ing, Ev-er on-ward till He calls me home.

Refrain

In the high-way of the King I'm walk-ing, And the light is shin-ing bright-er ev-ery day; In the high-way of the King I'm walk-ing, With my Sav-ior close be-side me all the way.