

Into the Depths of the Sea

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1905

William Howard Doane, 1905

♩ = 100

1. Re - joice ye with sing - ing who trust in the Lord: Go tell His sal - va - tion with
 2. O seek Him be - liev - ing the word of His grace, And find in the Sav - ior, the
 3. The bur - den so heav - y, at Cal - va - ry fell, For Christ is our ran - som, and
 4. Then glad be our serv - ice; to give day by day, Love's will - ing al - le - giance to hap - py ac - cord; He saith in His mer - cy to you and to me, "Your light of His face; There shin - eth His Gos - pel, the sha - dows will flee; Our now all is well; Yea, brok - en the bond - age, hence - forth we are free; Our all He may say; We'll sing in His glo - ry, there ev - er to be, Our sins shall be cast in - to the depths of the sea."

Refrain

 sins shall be cast in - to the depths of the sea. In - to the sea, Cal - va - ry's sins shall be cast in - to the depths of the sea. In - to the sea, sins shall be cast in - to the depths of the sea.

sea, His love is an o - cean, so bound - less and free; In - to the sea, Cal - va - ry's Cal - va - ry's sea, In - to the sea, sea, Our sins shall be cast in - to the depths of the sea.

 Cal - va - ry's sea,