

In the Valley

Marcus Lafayette Williams, 1913

Marcus Lafayette Williams

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. It was down in the val - ley, and near the ri - ver side, Where last I saw my bro - ther ere he
 2. It was down in the val - ley I wan - der in des - pair, And an - gels seem to ga - ther round me
 3. In the val - ley so lone - ly I oft - en kneel in prayer, And Je - sus helps me all my hea - vy crossed the dark tide; When the trum - pet shall bid all the dead in Christ a - rise, I shall ten - der - ly there; It is down in the val - ley where weep - ing wil - lows grow, That I bur - dens to bear; When in si - lence the mo - ments of life shall pass a - way, I will meet my loved ones, and there'll be no more good - byes. dream of home and loved ones in the long a - go. We shall meet to part no jour - ney on - ward to the realms of end - less day. We shall meet more, By and by on the blest shore; We shall meet to part no to part no more, By and by, yes, by and by, on that blest shore, blest shore; We shall meet more, Meet our loved ones gone be - fore.

Refrain

 to part no more, Meet our loved ones, loved ones gone be - fore, yes gone be - fore.