

I Shall Have Wings

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1882

John Robson Sweney

♩ = 97

1. There's a voice that comes in my lone - ly hours, And ten - der-ly speaks to
2. O I sit and think of those ra - diant wings, By faith I be - hold them
3. There's a home for me, there's a home for me, My Sav - ior has told me
4. Oh the wings, the wings that I soon shall wear, And joy - ful-ly speed my me Of rest and home in my Fa - ther's house, Where hap - py my soul shall be.

now, And feel the hand of my Sav - ior laid So lov - ing - ly on my brow.
so, Were tears of sor - row and pain shall cease And plea - sure e - ter - nal flow.
flight From toil and care to a man - sion fair Of beau - ty and end - less light.

Refrain

I shall have wings, beau - ti - ful wings, I shall have wings some day— Bright wings of love from God a - bove To bear my glad soul a - way.

The musical score is written in 6/8 time with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). It features a treble and bass clef staff. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 97. The lyrics are arranged in four verses, with the first verse being the main body of the song and the last two lines serving as a refrain. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.