

I Shall See Him When He Comes

George P. Holt, 1912

William James Kirkpatrick

♩=95

1. I shall see Him when He comes in all His glo - ry, And with
2. I shall see Him as He is and join the cho - rus, With the 3. I shall see Him, and the sight will be most glo - rious, When His all the ho - ly an - gels in ar - ray; With the ran - somed ones who sing a - round the throne; O what ten - der, lov - ing eyes shall rest on me; I shall saints all robed in light's re - splen - dent glo - ry, When earth's joy to have His ban - ner ev - er o'er us, In the see Him, O my soul, what heav'n - ly rap - ture! In the dark-ening clouds for-ev - er fade a - way. land where sin and sor-row are un - known. I shall see Him when He comes, When He glo - ry of His pre-sence e'er to be.

Refrain

comes in all His glo-ry, I shall know Him when I see Him face to face; I shall list - en while He tells, While He tells the sweet old sto - ry, How He planned to save lost sin - ners by His grace.