1. You ask me how I know that all my sins are white as snow; You
2. You ask me know I know that that Je - sus
3. And now, as thru the world I know that He re - sus
- deemed me; And how I re - ceived the peace no gold can buy; How
- joic - ing, I am tell - ing what a Sav - ior dwells with - in; How I ask me how I know that He for - gave me; Now lis - ten, I must tell you how I know.
from the guilt and power of sin He saved me, Made me an heir to man-sions in the sky.
plunged in - to the cleans-ing, crim-son fount-ain, And Je - sus washed my soul from ev - ery sin.

Refrain

I was there when it hap-pened, and I ought to know; His Spir-it burn-ing in me, set my heart a-glow; So I praise the Lord to-day, He has washed my sins a-way; I was there when it hap-pened, and I ought to know.
