♩=90

1. When times of temp-ta - tion bring sad - ness and gloom, I will tell it to Je - sus my
2. When out on the hill - tops, a - way from all sin, I will tell it to Je - sus my
3. When wear - y with toil - ing and rea - dy to faint, I will tell it to Je - sus my
4. When dark - ness is dim - ming my path to the sky, I will tell it to Je - sus my Lord; The last of earth's trea - sures borne out to the tomb, I will tell it to Je - sus my Lord; When joy - ous and hap - py the sun - shine with - in, I will tell it to Je - sus my Lord; He ne - ver re - fus - es to hear my com - plaint, I will tell it to Je - sus my Lord; When help - ers shall fail me and com - forts shall fly, I will tell it to Je - sus my Lord. This earth hath no sor - row For to - day or to - mor - row, But Lord. To know I'm for - giv - en Is a fore - taste of Heav - en, And Lord. I'll cheer - ful - ly bear it, When I've Je - sus to share it, His Lord. Though blurred my life's pag - es By my sin and its wag - es, He's Je - sus hath known it and felt long a - go, And when it comes o'er me, And I'm Je - sus is dear - er to me than be - fore, Such peace - ful - ness fills me, Such an yoke it is ea - sy, His bur - den is light, When life be - comes drear - y, And I'm yes - ter - day, now, and for - ev - er the same, I'll not be for - sak - en, Tho' my
