

John 3:16

Joseph Manton Smith (1844-1900)

$\text{♩} = 115$

William Henry Harper (1845-1933)

1. I love to tell the story, How Christ, the King of Glo-ry, Left
2. So now I'll try to please Him, My life I give to serve Him; His
3. Then bro-ther, won't you love Him? And, sis-ter, won't you trust Him? I

Heav'n a-bove and came to res-cue me; For sin-ners, He re-ceives them, His true and faith-ful ser-vant I will be; And when called home to glo-ry, I'll know He died for you as well as me; We need our sins for-giv-en, That blood was shed to save them— So Je-sus died for sin-ners just like me.

sing the good old sto-ry, That Je-sus died for sin-ners just like me. Yes, yes, we may go to Hea-ven, To live with Christ who died for you and me.

yes, O yes! Je-sus died to set poor sin-ners free. You say, "How do I know it?" John three six-teen will show it; That big word "who-so-ev-er" just means me.