

Joy to the Sons of Men

Henry L. Tucker, 1861

Henry L. Tucker

♩=82

1. Joy to the sons of men On this bright Christ-mas morn! List to the wel - come
2. Joy to earth's sor - rowing child On this calm, peace-ful morn! The ho - ly, harm-less,
3. Joy to the sick and poor, "Bless-èd are they that mourn"; If they sub-mis - sive-
4. Love, joy, good - will and peace, Since that first Christ-mas morn, Have come to earth, and words a - gain That charm our wait - ing hearts, as when The shep - herds heard with un - de - filed, Can soothe his breast with com - fort mild; The hymn that floats a -

- ly en - dure, And trust His ho - ly pro - mise sure: He comes all sor - row ne'er shall cease; To Him who pur - chased our re - lease, Our hearts, re - deemed from glad a - maze Th'an - nounce-ment of an - gel - ic lays, "A Sav-ior Christ is born, A

- long the air Shall find an an - swer e - choing there— "The Sav-ior Christ is born, The to re - lieve, To com - fort all who will be - lieve— "The Sav-ior Christ is born, The death, we'll bring, And hum - bly, grate-ful - ly we'll sing, "The Sav-ior Christ is born, The Sav-ior Christ is born, A Sav-ior Christ is born."

Sav-ior Christ is born, The Sav-ior Christ is born."
Sav-ior Christ is born, The Sav-ior Christ is born."
Sav-ior Christ is born, The Sav-ior Christ is born."