

The Judgment Day

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1898

George Crawford Hugg

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. At the bar of God you will have to stand,
2. There you'll meet each friend, there you'll meet each foe,
3. Ev - ery act of life will be there made known,
4. Ev - ery hour we spend in the Mas - ter's cause
5. Let us then live close to the bleed - ing side

When the books are o - pened by the Sav - ior's hand; Then for ev - ery thought and each Will they bring you plea - sure? Will they cause you woe? For the way you act, while on When we see our Sav - ior on the judg - ment throne; Ma - ny deeds that here we would
Will be weighed by mer - cy 'gainst His brok - en laws; Ev - ery song we sing, ev - ery
Of that pre - cious Sav - ior, who for us hath died; For if we love Him and His word you say, You will have to an - swer, on the judg - ment day.

Refrain
earth you stay, Will con - demn or save you on the judg - ment day.
hide a - way Will be heard by mill - ions, on the judg - ment day. On the judg - ment day, dread - ful prayer we pray, Will be wait - ing for us on the judg - ment day.
voice o - bey, Joy - ful - ly we'll meet Him, on the judg - ment day.

judg - ment day, We shall meet our Sav - ior on the judg - ment day; Then what will you do? Oh, what will you say When you stand be - fore Him on the judg - ment day?