

The Jugment Day

Martin Wells Knapp, 1901, alt.

Robert Elmer McNeill

♩=95

1. Have you heard of the ap - point-ment which we all must sure-ly meet, When the
2. Ev - ery eye shall then be - hold Him, see the Judge up - on His throne, And the
3. Ev - ery deed you have com - mit - ted will ap - pear be - fore the throne, All your
4. Oh, the sol - emn, tra - gic hor - rors of that aw - ful day of days, When the
5. Then the dread-ed, aw - ful sen - tence shall at last from Him be heard, With no fin - al court as - sem-bles, with the Judge up - on His seat? You will cer - tain-ly be wick-ed quail be - fore Him, all their guilt com-pelled to own; Once de - rid - ed, now exin - ner, hid - den se - crets then shall cer - tain-ly be known; All the courts of Heav'n as-earth shall be on fi - re, and the heav - ens all a - blaze; When the wick - ed, in their hope of a re - vers-al; He can ne - ver change His word; "Curs-ed souls, de - part for-sum - moned, for the Bi - ble tells me so, And what - ev - er your en-

- alt - ed, ev - ery knee to Him shall bow, Ma - ny slight - ed, Christ re-
- sem - bled, what a ga - th'ring that will be! If you are not saved and
- fren - zy, on their knees shall wail - ing fall, And up - on the rocks and
- ev - er! to the pun - ish - ment pre - pared, For the de - vil and his

Refrain

- gage - ments, you must to the judg-ment go.
- ject - ed, what a fear - ful har - vest now! rea - dy, what a dread - ful day for thee! Oh, the weep - ing and the wail - ing, as the mount - ains, all in vain for help shall call. an - gels," aw - ful doom, for-ev - er shared.

wick-ed turn a - way To their aw-ful doom e - ter-nal, at the fin-al judg-ment day.

