

The Kingdom to Come

Eden Reeder Latta, 1898

H. A. Mullenix

♩=88

1. 'Mid all the temp - ta - tions I dai - ly may meet, While
2. How ma - ny have gone to that re - gion so fair; But
3. Oh, do not de - tain me with aught that is vain, But 4. Oh, come and go with me to yon - der a - bode, Where here, a poor pil - grim, I roam, I've this to con - sole me, and still, I am told, there is room! And, if I am faith - ful, my let me press on to my home! My spir - it is long - ing a flow - ers e - ter - nal - ly bloom! The home of the an - gels and

Refrain
oh, it is sweet— The thought of the king - dom to come! lot shall be there— Shall be in that king - dom to come. The place to ob - tain, In - side of the king - dom to come!
child - ren of God— The glo - ri - ous king - dom to come!

king - dom to come, the king - dom to come, Where I my dear Sav - ior shall see! The king - dom to come, the king - dom to come, Oh, that is the king - dom for me!