

The Last Lovely Morning

Anonymous, 1843

Harmonized by Joseph P. Powell, 1875

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. The last love - ly morn - ing, All bloom - ing and fair, Is
2. And when that bright morn - ing In splen - dor shall dawn, Our
3. The Bride - groom from glo - ry To earth shall des - cend, Ten
4. The grave shall be o - pened, The dead shall a - rise, And
5. The saints, then im - mor - tal, In glo - ry shall reign, The fast on - ward fleet - ing, And soon will ap - pear.

Refrain

tears shall be end - ed, Our sor - rows all gone. While the thou - sand bright an - gels A - round Him at - tend.
with the Re - deem - er Mount up to the skies.
Bride with the Bride - groom For - ev - er re - main.

might-y, might-y, might-y trump Sounds, "Come, come a - way"; Oh, let us be rea - dy To hail the glad day.