

The Last Lovely Morning

Anonymous, 1843

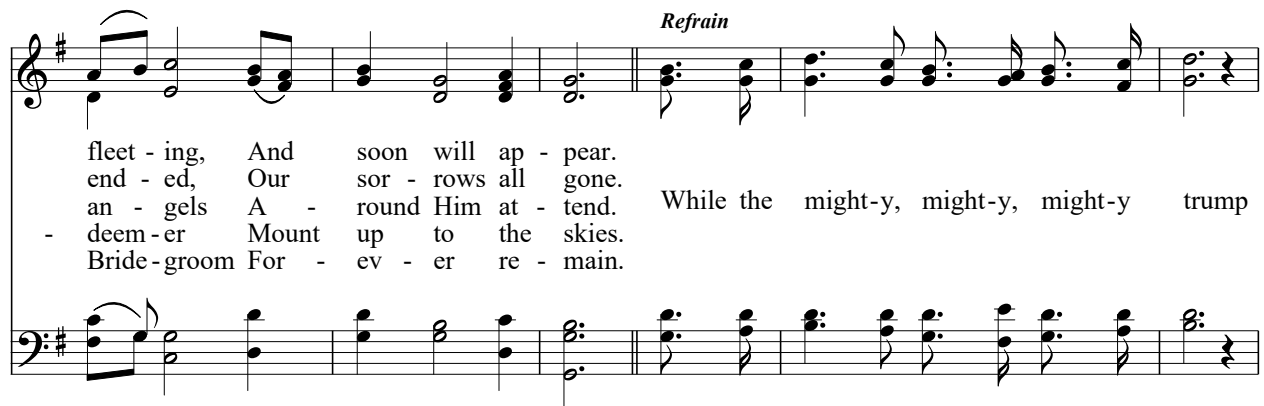

Harmonized by Joseph P. Powell, 1875

♩=105

1. The last love - ly morn - ing, All bloom - ing and fair, Is fast on - ward
2. And when that bright morn - ing, In splen - dor shall dawn, Our tears shall be
3. The Bride - groom from glo - ry To earth shall des - cend, Ten thou - sand bright
4. The grave shall be o - pened, The dead shall a - rise, And with the Re -
5. The saints, then im - mor - tal, In glo - ry shall reign, The Bride with the fleet - ing, And soon will ap - pear.

Refrain

end - ed, Our sor - rows all gone.
an - gels A - round Him at - tend. While the might - y, might - y, might - y trump
- deem - er Mount up to the skies.
Bride - groom For - ev - er re - main.

Sounds, "Come, come a - way"; Oh, let us be rea - dy To hail the glad day.