Lead On

Salathial Cleaver Kirk, 1903

Joseph Lincoln Hall

♩=102 Unison

1. Ten thou-sand bright ce-les-tial lights A-dorn the east-ern sky, But
2. O strange and won-drous orb of light, Of all the hosts the gem, Thy
3. Lo, now it rests— O, can it be— A-bove yon low-ly home! O, 4. Fare-well, fare-well, thou gem of night, Thy glo-ry shall de-cline; But one, and one a-lone, in-vites The watch-er's wist-ful eye. Lead on, lead star-ry path-way thro' the night Leads on to Beth-le-hem! Lead on, lead can it be that here has He, The world's Re-deem-er, come? Lead on, lead with thy fad-ing breaks the light That shall for-ev-er shine! Lead on, lead on, lead on, Thou star-ry light, lead on, lead on, The

on, lead on, Thou star-ry light, lead on, lead on, The
on, lead on, Thou star-ry light, lead on, lead on, The
on, lead on, Thou star-ry light, lead on, lead on, The

Refrain

pil-grims thro' the night. pil-grims thro' the night. Bright orb of night, ce-les-tial gem, The star of Beth-le-pil-grims thro' the night.
pil-grims thro' the night.

- hem! The dark-some night will soon be gone, Bright star, lead on, lead on! Lead on, lead on, bright star, lead on!