

Let No One Fail to See Him

K. B. Brown, 1908

Howard E. Smith

♩=105

1. The Son of Man is pass - ing by, Let no one fail to greet Him; For-
2. The light di - vine il - lumes His way, The dark-ness flees be - fore Him; Your
3. God's truth is ring - ing in your ears, Why hold it in de - ri - sion? While
4. Your soul is not your own, but His, With His own blood He bought you; Why

Refrain

- sake all pet - ty, bas - er things, Go forth to - day to meet Him.
path He'll make with glo - ry bright, Go forth, ac - cept, a - dore Him. He's Christ is near, His voice you hear, Make now the great de - ci - sion.
rob your God, who thro' the years With love di - vine has sought you?

pass - ing to - day, He's pass - ing this way, Let no one fail to see Him! The sin - ner who calls, whom sin now ap - palls, Will find God's love can free him.