

Let Something Good Be Said

James Whitcomb Riley (1849-1916), alt

French Earl Oliver, 1908

♩=105

1. When o'er the fame of friend or foe, The sha - dow of dis - grace shall
2. For - get not grace, no sin - ner yet May fall so low but Christ can
3. No gen - erous heart may turn a - side To deeds of love— if they in 4. If cru - el words em - bit - ter thee, Turn to the cross on Cal - va - fall; in - stead Of words of flame, or fa - tal blow— Let some - thing good be lift his head, While cheeks of shame with tears are wet; Let some - thing good be sin be dead, But may a - wak - en glor - i - fied, If some - thing good be

- ry, where said The Sav - ior: "O for - give," and see That some - thing good be

Refrain

said.
said. And so I charge ye by the thorn - y crown, And by the cross on which the said.
said.

Sav - ior bled, And by your own soul's hope of fair re - nown: Let some - thing good be said.