1. O, let the light stream in, The glo - rious light of day, That o'er the face of na - ture sheds A
 2. O, let the light stream in, The light of Gos - pel day, That shin - eth through the right - eous - ness Of
 3. O, let the light stream in Where homes are dark and drear, The light of God's e - tern - al love, That bright and gen - ial ray; We need its beams our steps to guide, Ere dai - ly toils be - gin, Then Christ, the Truth, the Way; 'Twill teach us how by faith in Him Im - mor - tal souls to win, Then con - quers ev - ery fear; Its gen - tle smile new joys may wake, Where sor - row long hath been, Then o - pen wide the door of prayer, And let the light stream in. Let the light stream in, o - pen wide our will - ing hearts, And let the light stream in. Let the light stream in, o - pen wide the door of hope, And let the light shine in. Let the light stream in, Let the light stream in,

Let the light stream in, Then o - pen wide the door of prayer, And let the light stream in.
 Let the light stream in, Then o - pen wide our will - ing hearts, And let the light stream in.
 Let the light stream in, Then o - pen wide the door of hope, And let the light stream in.
 Let the light stream in, let the light stream in.
