

A Light in the Window

Edward Weldon Dunbar, 1858

William Batchelder Bradbury, 1864

1. There's a light in the win - dow for thee, bro - ther, There's a light in the win - dow for
2. There's a crown, and a robe, and a palm, bro - ther, When from toil and from care you are
3. O watch, and be faith - ful, and pray, bro - ther, All your jour - ney o'er life's trou - bled
4. Th - en on, per - se - ver - ing - ly on, bro - ther, Till from con - flict and suf - fer - ing thee; A dear one has moved to the man - sions a - bove, There's a light in the win - dow for thee.

free; The Sav - ior has gone to pre - pare you a home, With a light in the win - dow for thee.
sea, Tho' af - flic - tions as - sail you, and storms beat se - vere, There's a light in the win - dow for thee.
free; Bright an - gels now beck - on you o - ver the stream, There's a light in the win - dow for thee.

Refrain

A man - sion in Hea - ven we see, And a light in the win - dow for thee. A man - sion in Hea - ven we see, And a light in the win - dow for thee.
