

Like a Star of the Morning

Henry Burns Hartzler, 1878

Edmund Simon Lorenz

♩ = 98

1. Like a star of the morn-ing in its beau-ty, Like a sun is the Bi - ble to my
2. 'Tis a light in the wild - er - ness of sor - row, And a lamp on the wea-ry pil - grim
3. 'Tis the voice of a friend for-ev - er near me, In the toil and the bat - tle here be-
4. It shall stand in its beau - ty and its glo - ry, When the earth and the hea -vens pass a-soul, Shin - ing clear on the way of love and du - ty, As I way; And it guides to the bright, e - ter - nal mor - row, Shin - ing

- low; In the gloom of the val - ley it will cheer me, Till the
- way, Ev - er tell - ing the bless - ed, won - drous sto - ry Of the

Refrain

has - ten on my jour - ney to the goal. Ho - ly Bi - ble! my pre - cious more and more un - to the per - fect day. Ho - ly Bi - ble! ho - ly Bi - ble pre - cious glo - ry of His king - dom I shall know. Ho - ly Bi - ble! ho - ly Bi - ble pre - cious lov - ing Lamb, the on - ly Liv - ing Way.

Bi - ble! Gift of God, and lamp of life, My beau - ti - ful Bi - ble! I will Bi - ble! book di - vine! Bi - ble! thou art mine!

cling to the dear old ho - ly Bi - ble, As I has - ten to the ci - ty of the King.