

A Little Human Kindness

Frona Scott, 1920

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

$\text{♩} = 86$

1. By mak - ing some - one hap - py as we pass a - long life's way, We
2. So ma - ny wea - ry pil - grims toil - ing on - ward up the height, Are
3. Keep all the hope - fires light - ed by the torch of love di - vine; As bring a bit of Hea - ven to the long - est, dark - est day; The long - ing for a friend - ly word, ere fall the shades of night; O bea - cons thro' earth's dark - est val - leys ev - er let them shine. Some - world is full of sha - dows, full of sor - row, grief and woe, And lend a hand to help them, haste to speak a word of cheer, And

- where be - yond the sun - set, in a land su - preme - ly blest, We'll

Refrain

snare are set be - fore us ev - ery - where we go. gloom - y clouds will bright - en when the day is drear. A lit - tle hu - man kind - ness brings a find that hu - man kind - ness paved the way to rest.

bit of Hea - ven near, A lit - tle hu - man kind - ness drives a - way our fear. A our doubt and fear, lit - tle hu - man kind - ness makes the souls of men a - kin, And brings the joy of vic - tory to a world of sin.