

Long Ago a Shining Throng

Kate Ulmer, 1903

William A. Post

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Long a - go a shin - ing throng, Thrilled the mid - night air with song; For the Sav - ior
2. Might-y God and Prince of Peace, Nev - er shall His glo - ry cease; But for - ev - er
3. Sing, ye heav'n-ly hosts on high, Sons of men, with joy re - ply, Sound His praise through rit. prom-ised long, Lay in Beth-l'em's stall. O - ver Ju - dah's si - lent plain, Sweet - ly rang the more in - crease, Till He rules a - lone. All the earth shall own His sway, Crowns and king - doms earth and sky, In His love re - joice. Let the swell - ing cho - rus ring, Hail Him Lord and joy - ous strain; Of His birth, who yet shall reign, As king of all.

Refrain
pass a - way; Kings to him shall trib - ute pay, Up - on the throne. Praise Him, an - gels bright, crown Him king; Of His power for - ev - er sing, With heart and voice.

Praise Him, stars of light, Tell His wond - rous might, Who to - day was born. Shout, O shout His name,

Glad - ly now pro - claim, How to save He came, This hap - py morn.